

ROCKBARE REVIEW

2006 'BURVILL' SHIRAZ

WINESTATE MAGAZINE

4 stars & best of new release

Big, warm-climate style, with the bouquet showing nice savoury elements. Similar palate, excellent flavour complexity, toasty oak and strong tannins.

Best of Varietal & New Release

Wednesday 1 September 2010

TONY KEYS

93 points

Very good example of the velvet style that often emerge from the Vale lacking on the complexities to make it an intellectual drink enticing debate but held its own in company 93 points

Key Review of Wine Issue 30

Monday 29 November 2010